DID THIS YOUNG WOMAN EXTORT CASH FROM MILLIONAIRES? SHE SAYS NOT

Mrs. Helen Evers in court.

Mrs. Helen Evers is charged by the government with having been the leader of the million dollar blackmail gang which operated in many cities. She is now enjoying her liberty under $25,000 bail. She insists that the charges against her are false.

West Virginia Briefs

MARTINSBURG: Crops of belladonna and other drug plants are being successfully grown near Martinsburg and at other places in the eastern panhandle, as a result of which the federal department of agriculture is keeping close watch upon the experiments and has sent A. F. Slevers, a chemical biologist, here for an investigation and a report.

CHARLESTON: The Wyatt Coal Company, with headquarters at Charleston, announces that it will spend $500,000 in improvements before its program of operation is carried out. Much of the work of improvement is under way. Eight new mines will be opened.

CHARLESTON: An emergency order for 150 overcoats to be made by the Second West Virginia Infantry has been sent to the war department. This order was placed to expedite the movement of troops to the border when the entraining is ordered.

PIEDMONT: At a meeting just held here the Democratic executive committee of the Second congressional district, reorganized by electing Senator R. E. Talbot, of Philippi, chairman, and J. L. Sandridge, of Kingwood, secretary.

CHARLESTON: German, Polish and Hungarian settlers are communicating with the chamber of commerce offering to purchase several small farms in the Kanawha valley for a colonization plan.

WEIRTON: A shotgun quarantine with guards stationed day and night has been established by health authorities at a house in the foreign quarter where a baby is afflicted with infantile paralysis and ten children who were exposed to the disease have been segregated under a two weeks' quarantine. Representatives of the state board of health decided it would not be necessary to close the public schools.

CHARLESTON: No strike will be made by the miners employed in the Rush Run Collieries Company, according to an agreement reached between the superintendent, C. H. Caperton, and the officials of the United Mine Workers of America. The men demand an advance of ten cents on the ton for mining coal.

MOUNDSVILLE: Bakers of this city have served notice upon the public that hereafter buns, cookies and rolls that heretofore sold for ten cents a dozen will in the future be sold for twelve cents. Six for a quarter loaves of bread are also a thing of the past.

WELLSBURG: John O. Erskine, of Steubenville, O., is organizing a new company here which will erect a large glass factory upon the site of the former Wellsburg Glass Company's plant. The contract for the main building has already been let to James Mathews, well known builder of glass factories. Mr. Erskine for years was traveling salesman for the Jefferson Glass Company at Follansbee.

PARKERSBURG: David Kemp, for twenty-five years a passenger conductor on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, is dead at his home at Beechwood, a suburb of allments brought on by injuries received four years ago. He was 50 years old and leaves a family.

CHARLESTON: Glass workers of West Virginia have been apprised that

MRS. JOHN WEIST EATS ANYTHINS SHE GRAVES NOW

Nerv-Worth Made This Possible and Reduced Her Kidney Trouble Also.

The following thankful acknowledgment of benefits derived from Nerv-Worth has just been made to Burke's drug store by Mrs. John Weist:

Burke's Drug Store—I have had kidney trouble and was so nervous that I could not sleep. My appetite was also bad. I doctored with several different doctors and none of them did me any good.

I have taken three bottles of Nerv-Worth and feel like a different woman. I can eat anything I want now and it doesn't hurt me. I can truly recommend Nerv-Worth to anybody who has kidney trouble or is nervous.

MRS. JOHN WEIST. Your dollar back at Burke's Drug Store if Nerv-Worth does not benefit YOU.—Advertisement.
